

In Service to the Brotherhood of Man

Zeta Beta Tau Recognizes Prominent Civic Leader, Alumni

Our civic and religious involvements, serving as a youth athletic team coach or working on behalf of ZBT to make the undergraduate fraternity experience productive and meaningful – service takes form in many ways. As members of Zeta Beta Tau, we commit ourselves to better the Brotherhood of Man through service to our various communities.

On two recent occasions, ZBT recognized the gifts of service given by several extraordinary men. In March of 2000, the

Dr. Richard J.H. Gottheil Award was presented to Edgar M. Bronfman, Sr. (pictured above with ZBT Past National President Richard S. Simon) for his work in fostering understanding and advancing the cause of human rights.

In service to the Brotherhood of Man, Mr. Bronfman provides significant leadership in several organizations that promote the modern Jewish cultural movement. He is the Chairman of the Foundation for Jewish Campus Life (Hillel). Hillel works to preserve Jewish heritage among college students while nurturing intellectual and spiritual growth in a religiously pluralistic environment.

Mr. Bronfman is the President of the World Jewish Congress, a body, comprised of international Jewish organizations and communities, committed to preserving and fostering the worldwide unity of the Jewish people. Under his leadership, the World Jewish Congress worked vigorously with the government of Switzerland to establish a $70 million fund to benefit Holocaust survivors.

In presenting the Gottheil Award to Mr. Bronfman, ZBT Past National President and Past President of the North-American Interfraternity Conference Richard S. Simon (M, Michigan, '43) stated that "when Edgar Bronfman assumed the leadership of the World Jewish Congress, the Jews of the world [gained] a vibrant, dynamic spokesman to champion the cause of justice." In presenting this award, Zeta Beta Tau gratefully recognizes Mr. Bronfman's commitment to the ideal of justice and his contributions to the Jewish community and our world. Mr. Bronfman joins such previous Gottheil Award winners as Justice Louis

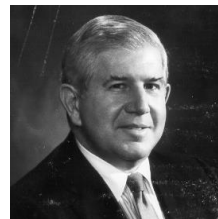

Brandeis, Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Elie Weisel.

In a recent gathering of alumni in New York City, National President Ronald J. Taylor, M.D. (3N!, Washington & Jefferson, '66) recognized the remarkable fraternal, civic and corporate contributions of Brothers Herbert Baum (ε, NYU, '41) and Edward A. Weinstein (), Columbia, '57). Each was presented with Zeta Beta Tau's Man of Distinction Award.

Brother Baum, pictured on the left, began his long fraternal career directly after his graduation from New York University by serving as a Trustee and Advisor to his alma mater's Gamma Chapter. His gifts to the Fraternity extend beyond those to his undergraduate Chapter. Herb serves as the Treasurer of the Delta ZBT Corporation, which works in conjunction with ZBT's Delta Chapter at Columbia University. He is also an Honorary Director of the Zeta Beta Tau Foundation, Inc.

Brother Baum has never flagged in his commitment to provide service to his Brothers. The flame of Fraternity continues to light his path. He is known in ZBT circles as a man who has a definite understanding of Brotherhood. His work has made ZBT a better fraternity and he has touched the lives of many young men who have entered our order.

Brother Weinstein, pictured on the left, also works to guide the undergraduate members of the Delta Chapter at Columbia University in his capacity as a Trustee of Delta ZBT Corporation. In testimony to his commitment to further the Brotherhood of Man, Brother Weinstein has served on the Boards of Directors of many prominent civic organizations, including the New York City Police Foundation, the Cooper-Hewitt National Museum of Design, the Columbia College Alumni Association, the Jewish Federation of Philadelphia, and the World Affairs Council.

Brothers Baum and Weinstein were both employed in the financial services sector prior to their respective retirements. Brother Baum maintains his CPA accreditation and still prepares tax returns. Brother

Weinstein was a Senior Partner at Deloitte & Touche from 1986 until his retirement in 1998. Ed created and led the Target Marketing Program for the Tri-State region.

Zeta Beta Tau proudly lists Herbert Baum and Edward A. Weinstein on its membership roles. Both Brothers are outstanding examples of altruism and fraternalism in its truest form. Both Brothers demonstrate that the ideals of Zeta Beta Tau are alive in our modern society. These men perpetuate and increase the fine name of our Fraternity.

Florida Chapter Wins Big

Chapter President Laurence Bolotin reports that Alpha Zeta at the University of Florida recently swept the 53rd Annual Greek Awards Banquet, winning awards in ten programming areas, the Governor's Cup for academic achievement and the Buddy McKay Cup for the most outstanding fraternity chapter at the University of Florida. Congratulations to the Brothers of the Alpha Zeta Chapter!
